

GENDER-BASED VIOLENCE IS AT CRISIS LEVELS IN CANADA. ON DECEMBER 6TH, TAKE ACTION TO HELP END IT.

The Rose Campaign is YWCA Canada's national initiative to end violence against women, girls and gender diverse people. It was created in remembrance of the 14 women murdered during the mass femicide at École Polytechnique on December 6, 1989.

December 6 is now recognized as Canada's National Day of Remembrance and Action on Violence Against Women, a day dedicated to honouring the victims of gender-based violence, supporting survivors and advocating for a safer future.

Together, we remember: Geneviève Bergeron, Hélène Colgan, Nathalie Croteau, Barbara Daigneault, Anne-Marie Edward, Maud Haviernick, Maryse Laganière, Maryse Leclair, Sonia Pelletier, Michèle Richard, Annie St-Arneault, Annie Turcotte, Barbara Klucznik-Widajewicz, and Anne-Marie Lemay.
